Pace up to Place up

In the present world, where competition is the key word, success rarely makes a visit and even when it does, it visits just a few. It is said “To remain where you are one should run fast; and to be a leader you should run even faster”. A lot of key expertise is to be developed in them to make them fit for the cutthroat competition, they are likely to confront, once they are ready to face life and succeed in life. This program envisages equipping the students to tackle such situations and to provide support to all.
